Tenders for printing bilingual trilingual dictionaries

2977. SHRI M. KADHARSHA: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to refer to the answer to Unstarred Question 1503 given in the Rajya Sabha on the 19th November, 1986 and state:

(a) whether tenders were invited for the year 1986-87 for the printing of bilingual/trilingual dictionaries;

(b) whether it is a fact that the tender of the printer who quoted the lowest rates was rejected;

(c) whether it is a fact that the Printer of the lowest tender complained against the rejection;

(d) the number of volumes that have been printed, to whom the work has now been assigned; and

(e) what steps Government propose to take to streamline the printing of dictionaries in the same tempo as was done during the last two years?

THE MINISTER OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT AND MINISTER OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI P. V. NARASIMHA RAO): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Two tenders were invited for printing of bilingual dictionaries. While one of the tenders is under scrutiny in the Central Hindi Directorate, the other tender has re-advertised because of the lack of adequate response and incompleteness of the tenders which were received.

(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) No fresh work has been assigned to any printer during the year.

(e) The printing of dictionaries which involves scrutiny of tenders, etc. is being taken up on priority basis within the framework of governmental procedures. It is expected that with the finalisation of tenders, ten dictionaries will be assigned for printing. Three bilingual dictionaries are already under print and printed copies are likely to become available by March, 1987.
